It is with profound sadness that we share Clayton Lee Mathile passed away peacefully on August 26th at his home near Dayton, Ohio surrounded by family. He was 82 years old.

“Clay was a visionary leader, impassioned philanthropist, devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He profoundly changed the lives of many through his generous heart, his entrepreneurial spirit, and his unwavering belief in others.”

Clay’s legacy lives on through his loving family: his wife, MaryAnn; his children Cate & Don Laden, Tim & Lynn Mathile, Mike & Michelle Mathile, Tina Mathile, Jennifer & Pat Prikkel, his 15 grandchildren and their families; and his one great-grandchild.
